CIRCULAR TO RAC PARTICIPATING PREFERENCE SHAREHOLDERS

1. INTRODUCTION AND RATIONALE

1.1 Rationale

Since its inception in 2010, RAC has successfully pursued attractively priced investments – both in South Africa and abroad. Over that time, the NAV per Participating Preference Share up to 31 March 2018 has increased by 178%, growing at an annual rate of 16.3% after all costs and tax.

Towards the end of 2016, RAC acquired an exposure to Astoria Shares as part of its normal course of business. Astoria Shares were trading at a significant discount to their NAV per share, less than a year after listing on the JSE. The Astoria Share price continues to trade at a significant discount to its published NAV, despite the fact that RAC has acquired, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Livingstone, an aggregate exposure of 28.72% in Astoria. This significant discount should be attributed, inter alia, to:

- the underlying portfolio of Astoria only having performed in line with broad global market indices (which can rather be replicated at much lower cost by investors);
- one of the reasons given for Astoria's initial listing in 2015 being to "offer South African investors a Rand Hedge alternative". As opposed to the increasing number of JSE listed companies that have significant offshore operations with unique and high quality business models, Astoria's current value proposition is significantly less attractive;
- the substantial strengthening of the South African Rand against major global currencies since the initial capital raise by Astoria, which has resulted in investors' appetite for JSE-listed exposure to offshore investments receding;
- investor confidence in Astoria's management having been eroded by an aborted attempt to implement a share incentive scheme on top of the existing management arrangement shortly after the listing of Astoria.

RAC, through Livingstone, now finds itself as a significant minority shareholder in Astoria and would like to provide its proven capital allocation framework to the board of Astoria for implementation going forward. Astoria's capital base and its corporate structure provide significant benefits for RAC to pursue its proven investment strategy.

The Board believes that the Voluntary Offer is beneficial to RAC Shareholders on the basis that:

- with a larger shareholding, RAC will be able to capitalise on the unlocking of the significant discount at which Astoria trades to its NAV;
- Astoria, as an investment vehicle, will provide RAC the opportunity of higher net returns on capital in future.

As at the Last Practicable Date, RAC, through Livingstone, holds 28.72% of the issued share capital in Astoria and intends to make a Voluntary Offer to Astoria Shareholders in order to acquire up to 87 643 353 Astoria Shares, being all the Astoria Shares not already owned by RAC or Livingstone.

In order to provide the board of RAC with the flexibility to offer RAC Participating Preference Shares as a top-up consideration for the Voluntary Offer, the board of RAC requests approval from its Participating Preference Shareholders to issue up to a maximum of 32 000 000 Participating Preference Shares, as detailed in paragraph 4 below.

The new RAC Participating Preference Shares to be issued, if applicable, as consideration for the Voluntary Offer, following approval of RAC Participating Preference Shareholders, will rank pari passu with the existing RAC Participating Preference Shares in issue.

1.2 Information relating to Astoria

Astoria is a Mauritian investment company with an objective of achieving strong US Dollar capital appreciation over the medium to long term by investing globally in high-quality listed businesses. The company currently owns a portfolio of mostly blue chip, global equities, some unlisted investments, including hedge funds related to the manager and third-party private equity fund, and some cash. The net returns to Astoria's shareholders benefit from a favourable capital gains tax dispensation.

Astoria is administered from its office in Mauritius and its assets are managed by Anchor Capital (Mauritius) Limited in terms of a discretionary mandate. The latest annual report of Astoria can be accessed at: http://www.astoria.mu/wp-content/uploads/2015/10/Astoria_AnnualReport_2017.pdf

Astoria was listed on the SEM on 10 November 2015, followed by a capital raise and listing on the Alternative Exchange of the JSE on 25 November 2015. With effect from 31 July 2017, Astoria's listing on the JSE was converted to a primary listing, such that Astoria now holds primary listings on both the JSE and the SEM. Astoria also holds a secondary listing on the main board of the NSX.

2. PURPOSE OF THE CIRCULAR

The purpose of this Circular is to provide RAC Participating Preference Shareholders with an overview of the Participating Preference Share Issue so as to enable them to make an informed decision as to whether or not they should vote in favour of the Resolution.

3. THE PARTICIPATING PREFERENCE SHARE ISSUE

If applicable, the new RAC Participating Preference Shares will be issued to Astoria Shareholders as a top-up consideration for the Voluntary Offer and will not be issued to related parties of RAC, as defined by the JSE Limited Listings Requirements.

The Participating Preference Shares to be issued as a top-up consideration will only be utilised and be applicable in the event that the total cash resources available to RAC is not sufficient to settle the total consideration due to Astoria Shareholders who accept the Voluntary Offer.

If applicable, the new Participating Preference Shares will be issued at 2 777 cents each, which represents a premium of 39% to the 30-day VWAP as at 25 April 2018, being the last practicable date prior to finalising the documents pertaining to the Voluntary Offer, of 1 996 cents. The issue price does not represent a discount or a premium to the last reported NAV per Participating Preference Share, being 2 777 cents as at 30 March 2018, as published on 18 June 2018.

4. PARTICIPATING PREFERENCE SHAREHOLDERS' APPROVAL

In terms of clause 13.9.2 of the MOI, Participating Preference Shareholders are required, by way of an ordinary resolution, to approve the issue of new Participating Preference Shares in the event that the number of new Participating Preference Shares to be issued, together with all other Participating Preference Shares issued during the current financial year, comprise more than 10% of the total number of Participating Preference Shares that were in issue at the commencement of the current financial year. The required ordinary resolution is subject to a simple majority of votes by Participating Preference Shares being cast in favour thereof in order to be approved.

Furthermore, if the voting power of the Participating Preference Shares to be issued pursuant to the Voluntary Offer will equal or exceed 30% of the voting power of the RAC Participating Preference Shares in issue at the Last Practicable Date then such issue requires approval, in terms of a special resolution, by RAC Participating Preference Shareholders in terms of section 41(3) of the Companies Act. This special resolution requires approval by RAC Participating Preference Shareholders exercising at least 75% of the voting rights, exercised in accordance with section 65(9) of the Companies Act and the MOI.

The relevant combined Resolution is set out in Annexure 1.

5. PARTICIPATING PREFERENCE SHARE CAPITAL

The Company's Participating Preference Share capital before and after the issue of the Participating Preference Shares is set out below:

BEFORE the Participating Preference Share Issue	Rand
Authorised: 200 000 000 Participating Preference Shares
Issued: 47 400 000 Participating Preference Shares	506 296 000
AFTER the Participating Preference Share Issue*	Rand
Authorised: 200 000 000 Participating Preference Shares
Issued: 77 223 020 Participating Preference Shares	1 334 481 260

* Assuming that 29 823 020 additional Participating Preference Shares are issued pursuant to the Voluntary Offer.

6. DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY STATEMENT

The Directors of the Company, whose names are given in the "Corporate Information" section of this Circular, collectively and individually, accept full responsibility for the accuracy of the information given and certify that, to the best of their knowledge and belief there are no facts that have been omitted which would make any statement false or misleading, and that all reasonable enquiries to ascertain such facts have been made and that the Circular contains all information required by law.

7. DOCUMENTS AVAILABLE FOR INSPECTION

The following documents, or copies thereof, will be available for inspection during normal business hours at the Company's registered office (and will also be made available on the Company's website: www.racltd.co.za) as well as at the offices of the Sponsor, which addresses are set out in the "Corporate Information" section of this Circular, from the date of posting of this Circular up to and including the Publication Date:

Summary of rights established by section 58 of the Companies Act as required in terms of sub-section 58(8)(b)(i):

1. A proxy appointment must be in writing, dated and signed by the Participating Preference Shareholder and remains valid for one year after the date on which it was signed or any longer or shorter period expressly set out in the appointment, unless it is revoked in terms of paragraph 4.3 below (section 58(2)).
2. A Participating Preference Shareholder may appoint two or more persons concurrently as proxies and may appoint more than one proxy to exercise voting rights attached to different securities held by the Participating Preference Shareholder (section 58(3)(a)).
3. A proxy may delegate his or her authority to act on behalf of the Participating Preference Shareholder to another person, subject to any restriction set out in the instrument appointing the proxy ("proxy instrument") (section 58(3)(b)).
4. Irrespective of the form of instrument used to appoint a proxy:
 - 4.1 the appointment is suspended at any time and to the extent that the Participating Preference Shareholder chooses to act directly and in person in the exercise of any rights as a Participating Preference Shareholder (section 58(4)(a));
 - 4.2 the appointment is revocable unless the proxy appointment expressly states otherwise (section 58(4)(b)); and
 - 4.3 if the appointment is revocable, a Participating Preference Shareholder may revoke the proxy appointment by cancelling it in writing or by making a later inconsistent appointment of a proxy and delivering a copy of the revocation instrument to the proxy and to the Company (section 58(4)(c)).
5. The revocation of a proxy appointment constitutes a complete and final cancellation of the proxy's authority to act on behalf of the Participating Preference Shareholder as of the later of the date stated in the revocation instrument, if any, or the date on which the revocation instrument was delivered as contemplated in paragraph 4.3 above (section 58(5)).
6. If the proxy instrument has been delivered to a company, as long as that appointment remains in effect, any notice required by the Companies Act or the Company's MOI to be delivered by the Company to the Participating Preference Shareholder must be delivered by the Company to the Participating Preference Shareholder (section 58(6)(a)), or the proxy or proxies, if the Participating Preference Shareholder has directed the Company to do so in writing and paid any reasonable fee charged by the Company for doing so (section 58(6)(b)).
7. A proxy is entitled to exercise, or abstain from exercising, any voting right of the Participating Preference Shareholder without direction, except to the extent that the MOI or proxy instrument provides otherwise (section 58(7)).
